Our musical territory
Positioning

A dynamic soundscape rather than a static musical footprint

- Orange's musical territory must be flexible and in motion
- There are no specific constraints in terms of musical genre, colour, time period or instrumentation. It is not a matter of æsthetic. The Orange brand is musically "open"
- A broad range of possibilities is available, focusing on the brand's personality, the emotions we want to convey and the innovative experiences we want to share

Our musical territory
The features

Bold

Always in touch to connect what's essential in your life

Our music can be daring and surprising. We may be where people least expect to find us. Our music is outgoing and dares to assert itself.

It has a distinctive texture; it's organic, lively, imperfect.
Orange music takes sides. It's a pioneer, a leader.

It is not

Tied to any style, trend, or era. Polished, linear, artificial or lifeless.

Our musical territory
The features

Positive

Always in touch to connect what's essential in your life

Our music always conveys positive, warm and reassuring emotions.
It can be playful, entertaining and humorous, like a friendly wink.

It is not

Aggressive or depressing, euphoric or naïve.
Mocking or provocative, except when it makes fun of itself.

Our musical territory
The features

Close to

Always in touch to connect what's essential in your life

Our music helps us tell stories our audience can easily engage with.

It easily adapts to the changing world, but also to local culture. And yet, its personality remains a constant and conveys timeless values.

The sound is natural. Sound textures are organic, even sometimes rough.

It is not

Linear, static, artificial.

Our musical territory
The features

Simple

Always in touch to connect what's essential in your life

Our music is immediately accessible and requires no deciphering. It speaks to our heart, not our brain.

It is sincere and genuine. It is reassuring because it makes a statement and is proud to stand out. It is a quiet force. Simple and refined, our music knows how to leave room for silence and breathing.

It is not

Elitist, coded, connotated or strange. Complex or requiring explanation.
