Orange Helvetica Neue Q&A

Global Brand
September 2025

What is the brand font at Orange?

The brand font at Orange is called ‘Helvetica Neue’. We use ‘Helvetica Neue 75 Bold’ and ‘Helvetica Neue 55 Roman’.

Also covered under the same license agreement:

- Helvetica Neue 65 Medium
- Helvetica Neue 45 Light
- Helvetica Neue 35 Thin
- ‘Helvetica Now’

Orange Restricted

Can I use other flavours of Helvetica?

No. The license is specific to the Helvetica Neue font software available at brand.orange.com.

All users of the Orange brand (both internally and externally e.g. agencies, developers) must use only the licensed version of Helvetica Neue from brand.orange.com.

Orange Restricted

Can I modify the naming or meta-data of the Helvetica Neue font software?

No.

Orange Restricted

Can I use other fonts at Orange ?

No. Helvetica Neue should be used as the primary font software in all Orange touchpoints.

If other fonts are used (e.g. in creative work), the correct license must be purchased by the user/entity. Failure to comply will result in financial penalties to the respective user/entity by the font owner.

Orange Restricted

What happens if embedding Helvetica Neue isn’t possible?

If embedding Helvetica Neue isn’t possible, use the native system font e.g. San Francisco/Helvetica for iOS, Roboto for Android or Segoe for Windows.

Orange Restricted

Can I use Arial ?

Yes – if it is a native system font in digital on MacOS and Windows operating systems, but not in iOS and Android (Arial is not embedded in the device at point of manufacturing).

No – for all other communication touchpoints. Arial is a font software owned by Monotype and requires a commercial license.

Orange Restricted

Can I embed Helvetica Neue into App software?

Yes. The font license covers us for unlimited perpetual usage on all Orange mobile apps worldwide accessible on all devices (computers, tablets, smartphones and connected objects).

Orange Restricted

Can I embed the Helvetica Neue font software into the device hardware e.g. set-top box?

No. Helvetica Neue font software must be covered by a third-party license between the supplier and Monotype.

Orange Restricted

What happens if my language is not supported by Helvetica Neue?

Pan-European, Chinese and Arabic languages are included in Helvetica Neue.

If your language is not supported, please contact a member of the Global brand team.

Orange Restricted

Can my agency/supplier use the Helvetica Neue font software?

Yes, if they have been contracted to work for Orange and have registered on brand.orange.com.

Your agency does not have permission or the license to use the Orange Helvetica Neue font software for other client work.
